

Exhibit 182

in the case of:

People of the Republic of Texas
and the Sovereign Nation of the Republic of Texas

v.

UNITED NATIONS
(and all it's Political Subdivisions)
and
UNITED STATES
(and all it's Political Subdivisions)

Under Pains and Penalties of perjury and the laws of the Almighty, and being sworn under a vow and oath, I attest that the attached pages are true and correct reprints of the:

Biggest and the Best - reference to flag height - from <http://www.anet-dfw.com/jlehman/Texas/heros.htm>.

This attestation is made on August 18, 1998.

Attest:

Witness to source and above signature

Mesle Ann, West
Witness to above signatures

Biggest and the Best

Texas' boundries enclose more than a quarter-million acres of wide open spaces. Texas is a world in itself one can visit Holland, Italy, Egypt, Palestine, Malta, and Canadian. Where else can you take a tour like that without crossing over water?

The great state of Texas has many brave and bold heros of old to boast of. The great men who wrote the still existing constitution are but a few. When Sam Houston became governer in 1859 it was only the beginning of the great transformation that was to take place.

The city of San Antonio, for example, took on a new look. Maps have come a long way too! Try to find your way around with the instruments Belle Star had in 1899, no wonder she was caught and killed in Oklahoma. What other state has as many famous women outlaws?

When the great politicians of yesteryear set out to make a state capitol building in 1888 they succeeded in making the largest in the nation.

After all, Texas is the only state that can fly it's state flag as high as the American flag, at the same time. Texas is the also the only state that has been it's own republic. Any Texan could easily continue bragging, and I will!

Last updated April 28, 1996 by: A. Reynolds Home Page