 *Some say that the S stood for nothing, others that it stood for Simpson
He had a brother Simpson Grant, and named his second son Ulysses Simpson Grant*

The S definitely stood for nothing

Vice Presidents whose names are in italics later became President

* *the only times the President and Vice President have been of different parties.
In the Adams/Jefferson case this was as a result of the pre-1804 electoral system.
In the Lincoln/Johnson case it was by agreement during the Civil War.*

elected by the Senate

% appointed under the XXVth Amendment

+ resigned
